Hig Entertainment at Jefferson With Legislators as Judges.
To the untailzing strains of the "Georgia Cakewalk," the "Alabams Breakdown" and shouts of approval from the audience, twenty littchmond negro buck and wing artistcake-walked, turkey-trotted, gritly-beared and otherwise disported themselves to the intense enjoyment of several hundred guests of the Jefferson Hole last hight in the auditorium, many of whom had never seen the real article of Southern nesro dancins. To thuse whose conception of the Cake-walk hadbeen formed by black-faced vaudeville comedians, the simon-pure exhibition was a feast.

dians, the simon-pure exhibition was a feast.

From the moment the negro orchestra struck up the air for the grand march until the last song was song the visitors were in one continuous gale of applause. There is no doubt that the ten couples upon the siage, dancing with one eye on the mountain-high cake in the corner, worked for all that was in them. They were all good, and the audience landed it to them, going into roars of merriment over one pair. This pair captured the first prize, a $5 bill, awarded by the unanimous vote of the judges, who are prominent legislators by day.

After the cake-walkers had danced and howed themselves through an hour or more of the evenings, a colored male quartet took the stage and gave some sure enough close harmony that met with the came approving given she dancers. The quartet was encored time and time again, and they was always back with a grin and another good song.

Several of the hotel bed hops were responsible for the entertainment, to which to admission fee was charged, and they covered themselves with glory for the talent they day up from Jackson Ward. The affait was so original and such a tremendous success that another may be given.
